

The State of the State, Plenary Session, Wednesday, May 18th

1:30pm-4:30pm, The State Museum of Pennsylvania

Pennsylvania's new Governor, executive staff and legislature face the daunting task of eliminating the state budget shortfall, while simultaneously addressing the Commonwealth's many preservation, environmental, community and infrastructure needs. This session will bring together agency heads and legislative and executive leaders in a focused and lively exchange on the future of Pennsylvania's communities, heritage, transportation network and environment.

Presenters:

- Scott Doyle, Division Manager, Grant and Historical Marker Programs, Bureau for Historic Preservation, Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission;
- Lee Huang, Director, ECONSULT CORPORATION;
- Barbara Franco, Executive Director, Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission;
- Barry Schoch; Acting Secretary of the Pennsylvania Department of Transportation;
- Cindy Dunn, Deputy Secretary for Conservation and Technical Services, Pennsylvania Department of Conservation and Natural Resources

Moderator: Mindy Crawford, Preservation Pennsylvania