

ECONSULT CORPORATION

MEMBER OF THE ECONSULT/FAIRMOUNT GROUP

ADAM OZIMEK, M.A.

Adam Ozimek is an Associate at Econsult Corp. He joined the company in January of 2008. His work has included preparation of databases, and econometric analysis for consulting and litigation clients. As a member of Econsult's analyst team, he has contributed to a wide range of projects including analysis involving commercial corridors, discrimination, foreclosures, and regulation.

Mr. Ozimek holds a Bachelor of Arts in Economics from West Chester University and received a Masters of Arts in Economics from Temple University in May of 2008.

Mr. Ozimek is pursuing his PhD in economics from Temple University, with specializations in industrial organization and public policy, and applied econometrics .

He is experienced in several analytical programs, including SAS, STATA, MATA, NLOGIT, and ArcGIS. In addition, he has written programs for econometric and complex spatial analysis in STATA and Fortran programming languages.